"Ruby is a folk hero for the nineties" - New York Times. This is a special book for me. It was the first picture book where I both wrote the story and created the illustrations. It was also the first book that I published after making a real conscious decision to try and make a career of this rather than just make money.

Ruby - Michael Emberley

Ruby outwits the trickster cat, and when she arrives at her granny's house, the cat's hat is perched on the head of granny's friend, Mrs. Mastiff--a muscular dog whose words, lack of appetite, and soft burp hint at the demise of their would-be predator. Michael Emberley has constructed a noir thriller out of a chestnut of a fable,...

Unfortunately, sometimes the parody is so easy that the author basically repeats others' efforts. However, in "Ruby and the Sniffs," author and illustrator Michael Emberley writes a truly original story, using `Goldilocks' only as backdrop for the character, the irrepressible Ruby the Mouse. Ruby is a curious, mischievous mouse.
