As it happens, I purchased more complex sheet music of the same song, and there it is, more or less like this one, so I can only guess, that this is the actual composition, and for his popular release, Guaraldi simply tossed it in favor of something that actually fit. Too bad we don't get that here.

Vince Guaraldi- Autumn Leaves

For those not familiar with him: Vince Guaraldi was a San Francisco based jazz pianist whose music became widely popular especially as a result of the soundtracks he recorded for Peanuts TV specials. His style is easy-going and accessible, making this music a good choice if you want jazz which is relaxed enough to use as background music but good enough to actually listen to also.
